

level up lacrosse

---

Level Up Lacrosse Program Coordinator and Coach, Nico Prandi

Nico is a High School Spanish teacher in Beverly, MA and the Varsity Girls Lacrosse Head Coach for Danvers High School. Nico graduated from Gordon College in 2013, where he played lacrosse as a midfielder for the Scots. He also plays lacrosse for team Argentina, participating in both the 2014 and 2018 World Games in Denver and Israel, as well as the 2015 Latin American cup in Mexico. He's been coaching camps and clinics for Gordon College, Origin Lacrosse, and Level Up Lacrosse during the past 5 years.

Level Up Lacrosse Coach, Wes Chittick

Wes comes to Level Up Lacrosse with a wealth of playing and coaching experience. Wes is currently the Head Boys' Lacrosse Coach at Danvers High School. Prior to that, Wes worked at several clubs and clinics including, Tribal Lacrosse, Origin Lacrosse, Gordon College Lacrosse Camps, and NESLL. As a player, Wes attended Gordon College. As a senior, he made 1st team all-CCC as a midfielder, all-conference academic team, as well as team MVP. In his junior season, Wes was all-CCC honorable mention as a midfielder.